

The 11th World Shakespeare Congress: Shakespeare Circuits.

18-24 July 2021. Online from Singapore.

The quinquennial WSC will be virtual this year. It will include plenaries, panels and seminars and an array of Asian productions of Shakespeare available both during the conference and subsequently. It is set to be the biggest, most accessible and most inclusive World Shakespeare Congress ever.

The academic program is available at www.wsc2021.org, detailing the keynote papers, plenary roundtables, panels, seminars and workshops. All registered delegates will also have access to the Digital Asian Shakespeare Festival, including full-length performances, curated watch parties, conversations with directors and curated multimedia presentations.
